SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Monday, May 2

7:00 P.M. CPR Band, Tony Cote, Chris Pitman, and Colin Roth, plays a variety of soft rock, blues, and folk. For this performance CPR will feature guest vocalists, Elaine Crocker and Bonnie Nichol. These excellent musicians will please audiences of all ages so join us at the Parkview Hall for a fun evening's entertainment.

9:00 P.M. Ken Flaherty has been called the "Story Teller Deluxe" by fellow folk singer Tim Harwill. His songs relate the experiences of rodeo riders, oil sand miners, war veterans, pioneers and outlaws, to name a few. He has shared the stage with other writers such as Tim Hus, Corb Lund, Mike Plume, Duane Steele, the Irish Descendants and Gary Fjellgaard. Having released three independent CD's he is now working on his fourth.

Tuesday, May 3

7:00 P.M. Andy Delorme and Friends. Andy instructs and encourages youngsters in their musical aspirations. Andy's students will showcase their musical talents and the progress they're making toward achieving their aspirations.

9:00 P.M. Southbound Six Dress Rehearsal. SB6 will present their annual performance set on Sunday, May 8th at the Springboard Hoedown. This evening's performance will illustrate the rehearsal and musical polishing process underlying the development of a musical performance.

Wednesday, May 4

7:00 P.M. Poetry For The Heck Of It, presented by Christine Nelson and Merilyn Peruniak, will set the stage for an evening of rhyme, rhythm, and song.

7:30 P.M. Patrick O'Brien brings his poetry to life with his musical accompaniments. This singer-songwriter tells us about his perceptions of people, relationships, and his day to day adventures. Patrick has performed to thunderous applause at the Springboard Hoedown for a number of years. He is a favorite of ours and will, without a doubt, soon be one of yours. His is a must see concert.

9:00 P.M Dale Mellott will take the audience from the fifties to the now, with a mixture of country and rock. He brings energy and enthusiasm to the stage for the enjoyment of the audience. If we twist his arm, he'll certainly perform some of his original pieces as well.

Thursday, May 5

5:00 P.M. Oski Pasikoniwew Kamik Students

Chorus. The OPK elementary school choir performs a selection of country music, ballads, and rock songs. This is the first performance for this 30-member student chorus.

8:00 P.M. Phyllis Sinclair's CD Release Party. (Everyone Welcome!)

Phyllis has recently released her third CD "Dreams of the Washerwomen" which she dedicates to "those single parents who, like my own, had sweet dreams, broken dreams and hopeful dreams. Those who, despite many frustrations, worked to make their dreams for us come true." Phyllis's music blends beautiful vocal themes with guitar accompaniments and tells of her rich and often challenging life experiences, her family, and the people and places that have touched her life. Admission by donation.

Friday, May 6

1:00 P.M - Open Jam. Everyone welcome. Bring an instrument and join in.
